

McGill

School of Computer Science

Undergraduate Student Affairs Office, McConnell Engineering Building, Room 320, 3480 University Street, Montreal, Quebec H3A 0E9

COMP 400 – Project in Computer Science

Overview: COMP 400 is a research project in any area of computer science, involving a programming effort and/or a theoretical investigation, supervised by a faculty member in the School of Computer Science.  Final written report required.

Student's name: Yik Yu Ng ID # 261172771
(Last name/ First name – please print)

Student's signature:  Date: Dec 2 2024

Program (Major/Honours): Honours Computer Science

Project Title (tentative): Bias detection on social media platform

Term: 2025 Winter

Supervisor's name: Benjamin Fung

Supervisor's signature:  Digitally signed by 8603d57d-ef1f-4135-a026-afb3c474db2a
DN: cn=8603d57d-ef1f-4135-a026-afb3c474db2a
Date: 2024.12.03 11:37:22 -05'00' Date: _____

Reminder:

DEPARTMENT PERMISSION REQUIRED FOR REGISTRATION.

A completed Project Form is required to register for COMP 400.

Please submit the project form via email as a PDF to Undergrad.cs@mcgill.ca
Paper copies of the form will not be accepted.

 Supervisors from outside the School of Computer Science may be allowed, depending on Department Approval.